CHAPTER 8

Randall McDonald Patterson and Tilly Ann Guiton And Descendants

- A. Randall McDonald Patterson
b 9 Oct 1839 (Cumberland Co., NC)¹
d 23 Jul 1902 (Mississippi)
- Tilly Ann Guiton
b 27 Sep 1837 (Cumberland Co., NC); d 23 Jul 1926 (Moore Co., NC)

For more than thirty years they lived in Cumberland County, NC, but sometime in the 1890s they moved to Mississippi. They were married on 16 October, 1860.² He was the fourth child of Neill and Margaret Ann Eliza (McLean) Patterson of Cumberland County. She was the daughter of James and Penelope (Weaver) Guiton of Cumberland County. He was a farmer. In documents of the period his name was also spelled Randal and Randle. The 1880 census of Cumberland County shows Randall and family living near his old homeplace and it appears fairly certain that all of his children were born in Cumberland County. His home in 1880 was about five or six miles south of Vass and near the Moore County line. Some living members of the family say that Randall and family moved to Perry County in south Mississippi and that he died and was buried there; if so, his grave cannot be located. Randall enlisted on 13 May, 1862, was assigned to Co. A, 1st. Btn., NC Heavy Artillery, and was discharged 18 March, 1963, for physical disability.³ At some point after Randall's death Tilly Ann returned to North Carolina. She was living with her daughter, Mary Furr (Sect. 5 below), when she died. She was buried in Johnson Grove cemetery, Vass, NC, but her grave is unmarked. Issue - 8:

1. Neil James (Buck) Patterson
b 6 Dec 1862 (Cumberland Co., NC)⁴
d 12 Nov 1934 (Moore Co., NC)
- Christian (Black) Collins
b 6 Mar 1860 (Moore Co., NC)
d 22 Jul 1932 (Moore Co., NC)

They lived in Moore County, NC, between Southern Pines and Vass, on what is now known as Sweetheart Lake Road. He was a farmer. The old house still stands, near the home of James Hoover Patterson. There was a well in the yard into which a daughter of William T. Patterson (an uncle of Neill James) is said to have fallen and drowned (Chap. 10). Christine Black was the daughter of Macon and _____ (White) Black of Moore County. She was previously married to John Willis Collins and they had issue - 3 as follows:

Pate who married Flora Ann Patterson (Sect. b below); they had issue - 7 (William A., George Henry, Ollie, Lillian, James Edward, Arthur Leo, and Lewis Winfred); (2) Helen, who married Daniel P. In later years the Blakes lived in Rockingham, NC, but apparently they previously moved frequently. He operated stores in Biscoe and elsewhere, but was a textile worker in Rockingham. He was the son of Alexander and Mary A. (Beax) Blake of Richmond County. Some members of Cattie Patterson's family say that she was born in Mississippi and that her family returned to North Carolina when she was about eight years old. Other evidence seems to point to the fact that Randall Patterson and family did not move to Mississippi until the latter part of the 1890s. Little could be learned of Numa Harris, except that he was a sawmill operator who had previously been married with issue - 4.
